4 TUSSAR

Fluid, monochromatic and grand - Tussar brings luminosity and depth to big walls. Like a coil of silken cloth, it catches the light and immediately draws the eye in. Tussar is a texture that brings elegance to any drawing or living room.

8 MADRAS CHECKS

Inspired by the timeless weave, Madras checks brings dimension to a living space and makes a bold statement. Available in a host of complementary colours, with pronounced criss-crossed lines, Madras Check is perfect to bring rustic symmetry and theatre to a large living space.

12 BANDHEJ

Inspired by the ancient tie-dye technique, Bandhej makes an artistic statement ideal for a shared living space. Polka dots are stamped over a textured surface that evokes crinkled, freshly dyed fabric. With its range of earthy neutrals, reds and blues, Bandhej is a bright texture that livens any space!

16 IKKAT

The threadlike texture and imperfect symmetry of Ikkat make it ideal for a single big wall, allowing furniture and room accents to pop. Like the fabric that inspired it, Ikkat has a soft, blurry look that echoes the threads so meticulously dyed by artisans in the country.

20 POM POM

Pom Pom is pure joy. Bursts of colour conjure, images of woollen winter hats and fuzzy shawls. This is a texture that's endlessly playful and instantly brings warmth. Ideal for a whimsical living room wall, or to bring life to any bedroom.

24 CHARPAI

Inspired by the weave that stretches across the wooden frame of its namesake, Charpai is Indian nostalgia on a wall. The technique creates a three dimensional feeling. Precise brushstrokes and muted colours mimic cloth fibres and bring a rustic, earthy feel to any room.

28 BASKET

Basket is a modern texture that's inspired by a classic handicraft: basketry. It's the texture for those who want to bring a bit of the countryside into their homes, with strokes that resemble bent cane and woven bamboo.

32 PALM WEAVE

Meant to echo the diagonal weave of interlaced palm leaves along India's coastal states, Palm Weave brings the sun, sand and breeze of the tropics inside home. Equal parts lively and classic, the design brings a bright feeling to any living space.

BANDHEJ from Gujarat, Rajasthan (WEST)

The Bandhej fabric arts of western India, mainly Rajasthan and Gujrat is one of the most ancient forms of tie-dye. The name is derived from the Sanskrit root bandh (to bind or tie). To create the same effect, the back of a foam roller is used to stamp each dot individually on the wall.

Ikkat is a labour intensive craft that requires years of practice to perfect. In India, the most recognisable forms of Ikkat come from the Southern states of Andhra Pradesh, Telangana and Orissa. Ikkat's signature blurry effect of resist-dyeing on silk or cotten is recreated by trained artisans using a special brush.

POM POM from Ladakh, Kashmir, Himachal, Uttarakhand (NORTH)

Pom Pom is a texture inspired by India's cool northern states – Ladakh, Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand.
